

2023 BUSINESS GRANT INFORMATION

The Twin City Chamber of Commerce is offering two (2) $1,500 grants to businesses who could use some financial assistance. These grants can be used for items, repairs, or to supplement your business if you are jeopardy.

A business owner must fill out the attached application and return it to the Chamber of Commerce office by 3:00 on Friday, March 24th.

When writing the description, the business owner must describe what the money will be used for, when the funds will be expended, and why the funds are needed for the business to function.

A committee made of business owners will read the applications and determine the winners. (The committee will NOT include the Executive Director and the Administrative Assistant).
